“ To The Family, Please accept my condolence. I hope that you are able to draw comfort from the scriptures during this difficult time. I hope this will also help you. \u201cNo more will be an infant living a few days only or the old man not living out his days\u201d. Isaiah 65:20In the coming new world under God\u2019s Kingdom, every child will have the prospect of a secure future. Never will death claim a God-fearing man in his prime. On the contrary, obedient humankind will be safe, secure, and able to enjoy life.Again, you have my deepest sympathy.

“ \tThe death of a loved one is so difficult to bear. No one ever expects to lose their dear baby in death. Please take comfort in knowing that your heavenly Father understands your pain as he too experienced the death of his dear son, Jesus Christ. John 3:16. Job 14: 14, 15 shows that God yearns to bring your dear loved one back. Please accept my heartfelt condolences for your loss.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you as it has us with what the Bible reveals to us about GOOD NEWS from Almighty God. As recorded in the Bible, God\u2019s only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died, just as he did when he was on earth as a man (John 5:28, 29; 11:43, 44). What a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It\u2019s a reality and a sure hope we can rely on because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2; Isaiah 55:10, 11). My wife and I sincerely hope you are encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this difficult time.
