

Timothy Everett Miller

September 2, 1956 - January 21, 2021

Tim Miller was taken to be with the Lord on January 21, 2021.

Born Timothy Everett Miller, on September 2, 1956, to parents Clarence C. and Bernice B. Miller in Ruston, Louisiana, was raised in Grambling, where he lived with his family of 6 until age 14. At that time, he left Louisiana to attend Thomas More Prep in Hays, Kansas for his secondary education. There, he developed considerable skills as a basketball player and gained quite a reputation as a star player on the varsity basketball team.

After graduating Thomas More Prep, he attended Norfolk State University in Norfolk, Virginia, where he graduated with a degree in Political Science. After completing studies in law at North Carolina Central University, he served as the Public Defender in Portsmouth, Virginia, in the 1990's until 2010, at which time he relocated to Newark, Delaware, where he remained until his death. From an early age, Tim loved to fish, a pleasure that he enjoyed his entire life. He also enjoyed watching sports, eating crabs and he never ran away from a healthy debate, especially ones that he started! He was a loving brother, a devoted friend and a wonderful uncle. It was often said, "Everyone should have an Uncle Tim"!

Tim was preceded in death by his father, Clarence; mother, Bernice; brother, Conrad; and his niece Lauren.

Tim is survived by his wife, Suzanne Miller; brother, E. Douglas Miller (Cynthia); sister, Jocelyn Miller Webb (Keith); nieces, Alexa Webb, Simone Somerville and Reva McCloud-Cobb; nephews, Drew Webb, Andrew Miller and Cameron and Aaron McCloud; and a host of extended cousins. The family will hold a private memorial to honor and celebrate Tim's life.

“ I have not seen Tim in many years but he left such a spot on my heart. He, Jesse (one of his lifelong friends) and I spent much time together in our younger years. Tim was always serious and funny at the same time. He would do anything for anyone. Though we lost track over the years, I could not miss this opportunity to reach out to his family to say that I am praying for your peace and comfort as you suffer this incredible loss. Somehow I know that he and Jesse are reuniting and that makes me smile. Diane Watkins Edwards

“ I don't remember the season or the date when I met Tim. What I do remember is the fun that was shared as we interacted with each other. We shared a passion for reading and vigorously compared authors and stories we had read. Tim sent me home with books that he had read and wanted to share with me. I truly appreciate the honor of having met Tim and treasure the memories we created. I understand the love of a sibling. They bring joy to us that is placed deep in our soul. Please remember, the memories created and shared will be with us always. May God lead the family and friends on this unfamiliar journey and bless each with love, comfort and peace. “ To Jocelyn & Family, My deepest condolences are being sent your way as you take time to not only mourn the void that is now felt in your family, but also, to celebrate Tim's life and the special moments you shared. I am grateful that our paths crossed and many fond memories have flooded my mind since learning of his departure. I cherish these photographic memories captured between the mid 1980s to early 1990s. He spent time with my family; I attended your wedding; we had fun at King's Dominion; and a memorable time at Gov. Wilders Inaugural Ball. My career led me to DC and he visited. I treasure the relationship and friendship we shared. I am praying for your peace as I trust his soul is at peace.
