“ My condolences to the family for your lost. The Bible gives a hope for the dead. (John 5:28,29) In the future, there will be no more death. (Rev.21:3,4)

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. Please take comfort in the bible during your time of grief. At John 5:28 and 29, it tells us that there is going to be a resurrection of the dead. Please look forward to being reunited with your loved ones again. Until that time may your entire family be comforted and blessed.

“ May the promise found at Isaiah 25:8 bring some comfort in the death of Tommie J. Maybin. "He will swallow up death forever. The Sovereign Lord will wipe away the tears from all faces." Just imagine, no more pain and grief due to the death of a love one! By means of the Kingdom that Jesus Christ taught us to pray for, God is going to remove sickness, old age and death from the human family.
