“ To the Family:\n\nI am so sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. Death is an enemy to us all, but Almighty God is going to remove death, tears, mourning and pain in the near future. (Revelation 21:4) Please look forward to that time. Also, the bible tells us at Acts 24:15, that the dead will be resurrected. Please take comfort in the bible during your time of grief. Until then, may the God of all comfort grant your entire family peace.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God \"will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.\"
