

Travis L. Savage

December 30, 1960 - September 21, 2014

Travis Leon Savage was born on Friday, December 30, 1960 in Painter, VA, where he was also raised. He passed away on Sunday, September 21, 2014. He received his education in the Accomack County public school system. He was raised in a Baptist Church in Painter, VA.

He worked most of his life as a factory worker at Coldwater Seafood in Cambridge, Maryland and then as a construction worker for Ted Abbott Construction.

Travis enjoyed fishing, telling a good joke (making family and friends laugh), listening to music and watching westerns and The Three Stooges. He really enjoyed the “simple life.”

Travis has one daughter that was his star, Onnabre Renee Savage of Felton, DE; three sisters, Delores Savage of Painter, VA, Roshelle Sharp of Portsmouth, VA and Vanessa Savage (Michael) of Federalsburg, MD; three brothers, Roy Savage (Alberta) of Painter, VA, John Savage (Debra) of Hawthorne, CA and Jimmy Graham (Renee) of Philadelphia, PA; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, great-nieces and nephews; one great-great nephew. Travis shared a special relationship with his nieces, Kisha Savage and Kendra Savage and nephews, Kevin, Breontê, André and Roy; and a special friend, June Arshad.

Preceding him in death were his mother, Alice Savage; his father, Dorsey Hack and both his maternal and paternal grandparents.

To send flowers to the family or plant a tree in memory of Travis L. Savage, please visit our
Heartfelt Sympathies Store.