“ My sincere condolences to the family of Tra'Von Farrow. The loss of a loved one is both devastating and painful, but even more when it is someone so young. So many emotions are exposed that the weight from them can be crushing. Our Heavenly Father is aware of how you are feeling. He makes mention at Psalms 51:17 of "a heart broken and crushed". It is through prayers to him that you will gain the greatest relief. He gives both comfort and hope in his words at Acts 24:15 and Revelation 21:3,4. I hope the reminders concerning the future blessings he is holding out to you about your loved one, Tra'Von, will help you through the difficult days that you face. May the gentle words from family and friends also be another source of comfort to you.

“ I am truly sorry to learn about the loss of your dear loved one. There are many words of comfort I would like to say; however, it has often been found that the best source of comfort is found in God's word. God is aware of your pain. "He is healing the brokenhearted ones, And is binding up their painful spots." (Psalms 147:3) Death was never meant to be (Genesis 2:17). Therefore, "He will actually swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord will certainly wipe the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25:8) May the hope of being reunited with your deceased loved one bring you a measure of comfort and joy.
