

Trevor Constantine Wright

February 10, 1939 - November 28, 2017

Trevor was born to father Ivan Arscott Wright and mother Zereta Margarite (Heron)Wright He leaves behind wife, Winnifred Wright; children, Anthony, Patricia, Kevin, Norman, Terrence, Angela, Robert, and Andrew; daughter-in-law, Janet Wright and son-in-law, Richard Fletcher; grandchildren, Nekisha, Roshain, Chantel, Chanel, Nichall, TJ, Joy, Omari, Jayda, Brandon, Sean, Eric; great-grandchildren, Charelle, Noah, Quinn, Marshanique; siblings, Nerma, Hyacinth, Teslyn, Maybe, Morington, Barbara, Marlene, Dolores and Marcia. Trevor was a brother-in-law, uncle and friend to so many others.

Trevor was taken from us suddenly, but his memory will live on in each and every one of us.

Trevor was born into an established family business and his main goal and passion in life was to establish himself in being a business man as was his parents. He began his first taxi business, "Mutt & Jeff", as a young adult , and went on to establish himself as the first school bus operator in Jamaica by importing his first school bus.

In addition to being a business man, Mr. Wright was an advocate for ensuring the safety of so many children. He travelled near and far to ensure that all kids were bused to and from their school and their homes. He never considered the distance of where they were travelling, but always seemed to be willing to accommodate each parent, no matter what the circumstances may be. He later took over the family business before migrating to the United States, where he continued his passion of ensuring kids were bused to and from school.

He was devoted to his family and never wavered regarding the importance of life. You will always be in our hearts while resting in the arms of the Lord.

Rest in peace (RIP).

“ I would like to offer my condolences for your loss. I hope you will find comfort in knowing that Jehovah, the God of all comfort, will soon eliminate all grief and provide permanent consolation when “all those in the memorial tombs will hear [Christ’s] voice and come out”! (John 5:28, 29) God promises that “he will do away with death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.” (Isa. 25:8) Then, instead of having to “weep with those who weep,” all earth’s inhabitants will “rejoice with those who rejoice.”—Rom. 12:15.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one. It really hurts to lose someone you love. I recently loss two sisters in death, and the pain of losing them is still hard to bare. The bible gave me hope for the future. At Acts 24:15 it says that there is going to be a resurrection of the dead, giving me hope of seeing them again. Also, at Revelation 21:4 it tells us that soon Almighty God is going to do away with death, tears, mourning and pain. I look forward to that time and so can you. Until then, may your entire family be comforted and blessed.

“ In the wake of our sorrow, we find strength in God's promises. He promises to love us, to comfort and guide us, and to always just be there. He promises to give us strength to weather any storm. God will never leave us when skies are gray, as long as we believe and trust Him, His love will light our way. Those we love don't go away, they remain with us everyday. Our dear Trevor, in our hearts you will remain, still loved, still missed and very dear. May God's love comfort the entire family now and always.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ It took me some time to accept the fact that you are really gone. So suddenly without a warning, but that is how God works. I keep hoping that this is all just a dream and I will wake up to realize it didn't really happen, but the reality is quite real. God rest your soul Uncle Trevor. "I Will Always Love You" (((♥)))
"Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal."
"Your wings were ready but my heart was not."
♥ Rest in peace my dear sweet Uncle ♥
Although we could not be there with you today. We are with you in thoughts and prayers. May the love of Family and Friends continue to comfort you during this difficult time."

“ I would like to offer my personal condolences to your family. I hope that you will be able find strength in Gods promise at Revelation 21:4 that soon: he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. You are in my thoughts and prayers and once more I am deeply sorry for your familys loss.

“ Extending deepest sympathy to family and friends in this time of sorrow. Please find comfort in knowing that soon all those in God's memory will hear Jesus' voice and live again. (John 5:28,29) Until that blessed day, may Jehovah, the God of all comfort, grant you peace while many fond memories warm your hearts.
