“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.

“ Dear Family, though your hearts are heavy with pain and sorrow right now, over the loss of your dear loved one, but know that our heavenly Father did not leave you without hope. God did not create mankind to suffer the sting of death. He lovingly provided hope of one day being reunited with our loved ones. Acts 24:15; Revelation 21:4; Hosea 13:14. I sincerely express my deepest sympathy. \t

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences to you for the loss of your loved one. The Bible describes death as an enemy and that it truly is (1 Corinthians 15:26). That is why Almighty God promises that the day will surely come when his beloved son, Jesus Christ will bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). And, once that has been accomplished, that enemy death and all the pain that it has caused mankind will be gone forever (Revelation 21:3, 4)! What a miraculous hope ahead! Only God can accomplish such a promise. Until then may you take comfort in the hope ahead when life as God purposed will be done. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
