

Tysha Leigh White

July 25, 1991 - November 26, 2017

After a long and courageous battle, Tysha Leigh White exited her earthly home to spend eternity with the Lord on Sunday, November 26, 2017. Tysha, 26, was born to Althea Palmer-White and the late Ty Kevin White on July 25, 1991 at Nanticoke Memorial Hospital.

Tysha accepted Christ into her life at an early age. She attended Mt. Pisgah A.M.E. Church with her father, for years. She later rededicated her life and knew that it was her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and the power of prayer that kept her through some very difficult times.

Tysh, as she was affectionately known to family members and friends, attended schools in the Laurel School District. She graduated from Laurel Senior High School in 2009. She went on to further her education by attending the University of Delaware in Newark and then Delaware Technical & Community College in Georgetown. Tysha began her employment at McDonalds. Because of her strong work ethics, she was immediately promoted from a crew trainer to a floor supervisor. It was at this time that her health didn't allow her to continue working. When she was well enough to start working again, she became employed with Starbucks in Salisbury, MD.

Tysha was a fun, loving daughter, granddaughter, sister, aunt, cousin and friend. She enjoyed family BBQ's, dinners and other family get-togethers. She loved her Aunt Verdine's "black" (chocolate) cake with white icing. She also enjoyed going on shopping excursions with her Mom and niece, Dy'Asia. In addition, she enjoyed Black Friday shopping with her Aunt Natalie and her cousin, the late Deborah Waller only to get a few hours of shopping completed before she would say "Aunt Natalie, I'm hungry. When we goin' eat?" She also enjoyed her outings with all of her friends and favorite cousins Bianca and Courtney. During her down time, she enjoyed relaxing and watching Grey's Anatomy and The Walking Dead. Tysha loved cheering on the Pittsburgh Steelers as she carried on her father's legacy of being a devoted fan. While growing up, Tysha's father always instilled in her the importance of education. In turn, she has instilled these same values in her niece, Dy'Asia. Her mother Althea, has always deeply admired this gift from Tysha that will continue to live on.

Tysha leaves to cherish her memory a loving mother, Althea Palmer-White; grandparents, Joseph and Virginia Palmer; Robert and Lola Mae Williams; a brother, Darius Palmer; sisters NaKeita (Antonio) West and Kisha Beckett; nieces Dy'Asia McDougald, Jaela Beckett, Aliviah West; nephews Antonio West, Jr. and Zachariah West; aunts Verdine (Forrest) Puckham, Gloria (Marcus) Gillespie, Natalie (Larry) Moore, Suzette (Howard) Carter, Zelda Green, Connie Rayford, Michelle (Daryl) Cephus, Wanda (Gregory) Harris, Lanora Ann (John) House, Janice Moore, Dynthia Burris, Jackie Davenport; uncles – Gerald (Linda) Echols, Joseph Palmer, Jr., Rayfield (Sandy) Palmer, Kevin (Shirley) Palmer, Andre Palmer, Patrick Palmer, Andre White, Derrick (Chaunda) Matthews, Tyrone (Lori) Matthews, Danny Burris, Ronald Hitchens, Sr., and Elwood Holley; a special friend Dwayne Horsey and a host of great-aunts and uncles, cousins, and friends. She was preceded in death by her father, Ty Kevin White, paternal grandparents, Noveta and Wilroy Matthews, aunts Vanessa Hitchens and Sharon Holley.

Lovingly submitted,

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ I would like to offer my condolences for your loss. I hope you will find comfort in knowing that Jehovah, the God of all comfort, will soon eliminate all grief and provide permanent consolation when “all those in the memorial tombs will hear [Christ’s] voice and come out”! (John 5:28, 29) God promises that “he will do away with death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.” (Isa. 25:8) Then, instead of having to “weep with those who weep,” all earth’s inhabitants will “rejoice with those who rejoice.”—Rom. 12:15.

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. All of us have experienced the pain of death in some way sad to say. And, so, at difficult times like this we are confronted with the stark reality of how precious and fragile life can surely be (James 4:14). So, my wife and I send this condolence to you with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you as it has comforted us with what the Bible reveals to us about GOOD NEWS from Almighty God. Please be assured that we are in no way trying to impose our faith on you; but we sincerely just want to extend comfort to you during your grief (Proverbs 17:17).

As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died, just as he did when he was on earth as a man (John 5:28,29; 11:43, 44). Just as death is an enemy to us, it is also an enemy to God (1 Corinthians 15:26). For that reason as well as others, He promises to remove FOREVER all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and DEATH that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). What a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It's a reality and a sure hope we can rely on because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2; Isaiah 55:10, 11).

It is our hope that you NOT take our word for what has been written in this condolence; but that you please take a moment to read and meditate on all these referenced scriptures in your own Bible (1 Timothy 4:15, 16). My wife and I are confident you will be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are sincerely with all of you.

“ Extending deepest sympathy to family and friends in this time of sorrow. Please find comfort in knowing that soon all those in God's memory will hear Jesus' voice and live again. (John 5:28,29) Until that blessed day, may Jehovah, the God of all comfort, grant you peace while many fond memories warm your hearts.

“ Dear Family,

I wish to extend my deepest sympathies during this difficult time. May you find strength in Gods promise at Revelation 21:4 that soon: he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. You are in my prayers.
