

Ulyssus Orlando Jones

June 10, 1923 - April 2, 2013

Ulyssus Orlando Jones, son of the late Willie Jones and Emma Robinson, was born in Venton, Maryland on June 10, 1923. He was later reared by Burnice Wright, Sr. God gently called Ulyssus to his eternal resting place on Tuesday, April 2, 2013 at Peninsula Regional Medical Center in Salisbury, Maryland.

At an early age, Ulyssus accepted Jesus Christ as his personal savior and joined St. Charles United Methodist Church in Chance, Maryland. He received his formal education in the Somerset County Public School System.

He married the love of his life, Novella Traynham on December 10, 2002.

Ulyssus proudly served his Country in the United State Army, during World War II and received an honorable discharge in 1947. He was employed for 23 years at the Highway Department in the City of Baltimore, Maryland. After retirement, he continued working for Woodlawn Motor Coach, until returning home to Chance, Maryland.

Being a devoted husband, brother and uncle, Ulyssus loved his family dearly. He enjoyed spending time with family and friends and traveling. One of his pastimes was admiring and driving his Cadillac.

He leaves to cherish fond memories his wife Novella Jones; three sisters, Ruth Wright-Jones, Naomi Wright-Hayward (John), Mildred Wright-Williams (David); one brother Burnice Wright, Jr. (Juanita), and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and many, many friends near and far.

Ulyssus was preceded in death by one brother George Wright, Sr.

If I can help somebody

As I travel along

If I can help somebody

With a word or song

If I can help somebody

From doing wrong

My living shall not be in vain.
