VALERIE'S STORY

Valerie Elizabeth Baynard was born on February 11, 1946 in Denton, Maryland. She was the only child born to late Nathaniel Stanley and Elizabeth Baynard.

Ms. Baynard was a resident of Holly Center for several years. She began receiving day service at Wicomico County Teen Adult Center in 1997. In 2001, Ms. Baynard began receiving residential service through Dove Pointe Residential, Inc until she receive her wings on Friday, August 11, 2023.

Ms. Baynard was adored by many. She enjoyed spending time with her two housemates. She was known as "Mama" because she ensured that everyone adhered to her daily routine. She oversaw meal preparation and household chores.

When she was not managing her home, she enjoyed relaxing in her recliner, dining out, and going for long scenic walks through her community. She had a special relationship with Amy Parker. Ms. Baynard and Ms. Parker enjoyed holiday activities, shopping, and attending church. Ms. Baynard's kindness and compassion for others will be truly missed.

She leaves cherished memories with: her aunt, Kathlyn Grose; great nieces, nephews, cousins and the Dove Point staff.
