

Vance Rudolph Quailes Sr.

September 10, 1948 - July 7, 2018

Vance Rudolph Quailes, Sr. transitioned from this world's life to eternal rest to be with his Lord and Savior on Saturday, July 7, 2018 at Nanticoke Memorial Hospital in Seaford, Delaware.

Vance was born on September 10, 1948 to the late David Henry Quailes and Frances Virginia Jones Quailes. He received his education in the Dorchester County Public School system.

Vance was a Proverbs 3:28 servant. "Do not say to your neighbor, 'Come back tomorrow and I'll give it to you,' when you already have it with you." He had a unique artistic ability to bring out the beauty in any hidden treasures and could make junk into something beautiful. Vance could build or fix anything and often was everyone's handyman where no job was too small or big. "No" was not in his vocabulary. Vance also loved to eat and would never turn down food. Vance's contagious spirit brought a smile to everyone he met and talked with.

Vance was employed at various places and served his employers to the best of his ability. He was loved and respected by his peers and coworkers. Some of his employment included The County School and The Tidewater Inn in Easton, MD, Teen Challenge in Seaford, Delaware, and God's Way in Georgetown, DE. Vance was currently employed at the Senior Center in Seaford, Delaware.

Vance served in several churches over the years including The Light House Church of God, under the leadership of Pastor Calvin Abbott in East New Market, Maryland, and Emmanuel Full Gospel, under the leadership of Pastor Diane Alexander in Seaford, Delaware, both of which he served as a deacon. His current house of worship was Crossroad Community Church, under the leadership of Pastor Rick Betts. Vance diligently and faithfully served in several ministries at Crossroad including SOS (Serving Our Savior), Kingdom Cleaners Ministry (Serving Hands Team), Singles Ministry, and Celebrate Recovery. Vance would graciously lend a helping hand wherever needed.

Vance's sense of humor will be greatly missed. He leaves to cherish his memories his children: son, Vance Quailles, Jr.; daughters, Lashonda Kane, Charity Johnson, and De'siyur Quailles; grandchildren, Terron Quailles, Monica Quailles, Dominique Kane, Andre Gibson, Jr., and Ja'bron Bolden; great-grandchildren, Mi'Asia, Bryan, Ry'Mir, Zavion, Ashton, Nyzir, and Journee; siblings, Hattie Savage, special brother and sidekick, David Quailles, Sr., Iris Quailles, Sylvia Quailles, Michael Quailles, Sr., Delba Robertson, Vanessa Jones, Cynthia Quailles, and Ron Lee Jones; Aunts, Victoria Jones and Wilsie Quailles; uncle, Dudley Lloyd; special friend, Russell Collins, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, and acquaintances. Vance was preceded in death by his parents and brothers, Reginald, Ira, Tyrone, and Alphonso. “Condolences from Evelyn, To the family and friends of Mr. Quailes, Nothing can fully prepare us for the loss of a love one. But the Bible assures us at (Psalm 34:18) that Jehovah is near to those that are the broken at heart. May the Bible bring hope and comfort to the family. I'm so sorry for your loss.

“My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. All of us have experienced the pain of death in some way sad to say. And, so, at difficult times like this we are confronted with the stark reality of how precious and fragile life can surely be (James 4:14). So, my wife and I send this condolence to you with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you as it has comforted us with what the Bible reveals to us about GOOD NEWS from Almighty God.

As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died, just as he did when he was on earth as a man (John 5:28, 29; 11:43, 44). Just as death is an enemy to us, it is also an enemy to God (1 Corinthians 15:26). For that reason, as well as others, He promises to remove FOREVER all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and DEATH that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). What a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It's a reality and a sure hope we can rely on because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2; Isaiah 55:10, 11).

It is our hope that you NOT take our word for what has been written in this condolence; but that you read and accept what God's Word, the Bible says. We encourage you to please take a moment to read and meditate on all these referenced scriptures in your own Bible (1 Timothy 4:15, 16). My wife and I are confident you will be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
