

Velma Jean Scott

February 11, 1945 - December 1, 2012

Our beloved mother, wife, sister, aunt, and friend, went home to be with the Lord on December 1, 2012. Velma Scott, born on February 11, 1945 to the parents of Anthony and Lizzie Mae Weldon, in Houston County Georgia and received her formal education in the Houston County public school system.

On July 15, 1972, Velma migrated to Dover, DE and began her new life with Peter J. Forbes. There they were united for seventeen years, until the latter of 1981. Although, they were not together, they remained in touch because of the children.

On April 5, 1986, Velma was united with George McKinley Scott, in holy matrimony, until her untimely passing on December 1, 2012.

Velma was not only known for her great cooking, she was also known for being a helping, loving, caring person, who would give you the world if she had it. She was also a sports enthusiast in her younger years.

Velma was a Certified Nursing Assistant for various nursing homes and the Smyrna Home and Hospital. She worked at Terry's Children Center where she worked with children with behavioral problems for 15 years, until her retirement in 2005. She really loved working with the children and staff there at Terry.

She was a member of Second Baptist Church, where she served as the Special Pastoral support, The Lucille Evans Missionary Circle, Second Baptist Church Mass Choir, The Willing Workers Circle, and the Second Baptist Church Ushers Unit.

Velma was also a member of Hattie S. Blackwell Chapter# 16 of the Order of the Eastern Stars, in Dover, Delaware which she held several offices. She was a past Worthy Matron, Hospitality committee chairperson, and various other offices held while she was a member.

Velma was preceded in death by her parents, Anthony and Lizzie Mae Weldon; her sisters, Carrie Mae Arline, Cassie Bagley, and Beulah Mae Allen. Velma also was preceded in death by her mother and father in law Margaret and McKinley Scott.

Velma leaves to cherish her memories, her husband: George Scott of Dover, DE. Daughters Teresa Weldon (Frances) of New Castle, DE., Barbara Dinkins of Newark, DE, adoptive daughter, Cynthia Tyson, Baltimore, MD, and Goddaughter Jamie De Fazio Hackensack, NJ. Stepsons William and Nowell Scott, Dover, DE; Grandchildren: Christopher Dinkins, Newark, De, Anthony Coleman, New Castle, DE, James Coleman Jr., Newark, DE., Kristopher Scott, Andrew Smith, New Castle, DE, Monique Scott, Amari Scott, Jaden Paul, Jordan Paul, Of Dover, DE, Darrion Ireton of Northeast, MD, Azriel Tingle, Kynjuan Tunstill-Scott, Lisa Walters, Olivia Walters all of Dover, DE .,Joran Merced, Brenda Merced of New Castle, DE, Christopher Tyson, and Christina Tyson of Baltimore, Md.. Great-grandchildren: Kynjuan Tunstill-Scott Jr., Malik Walters of Dover, DE, Idalis Rodriguez, and Isaiah Gaynor of New Castle, DE. Sister: Estell Mims (Lawrence) of Macon, GA. Brothers: Lawrence Weldon (Joyce), Richard Weldon (Yvonne), Eddie Weldon, Anthony Weldon Jr (Helen), Samuel Tharpe all of Warner Robins, GA., Sister in Law Joan Cruz

(Martin) of Randallstown, MD. Brother in law Michael Scott,, Northeast, MD and Aunt Christine Bivins of Warner Robins, GA, and a host of nieces, nephews, family, and friends.

Tribute Wall

JW

“ To Teresa and Family

Heart felt sympathy for the passing of your Mother. Words are not enough during this pain, A mothers love is unplaceable. Still take pride in knowing the love of a mother is a treasure you will always have. The memories of her love will forever live within you. May God hold you close during this time of Bereavement.

Joyce Webb

Joyce Webb - December 23, 2012 at 12:00 AM