Obituary

Vincent Keith “Bellz” Waters, affectionately known “Lil V” was born on March 14, 1992 in Salisbury, MD to Nicol Renee Waters and the late Vincent Keith Ward. On July 23, 2017 he was tragically called home.

Vincent received his early education in Snow Hill, MD until relocating to Baltimore, MD where he then attended Baltimore County Public Schools. He was very adventurous and outgoing. His personality, sense of humor, infectious laugh, and radiant smile were one of a kind. Vincent enjoyed basketball and hanging out with his friends. He was one of the kindest, open-hearted and most genuine men you could ever meet. Although he was a friend, many considered him family.

At a young age, Vincent had a passion for fashion. He later realized that he wanted to create a brand that encompassed who he was. Through his vision N.S.L. (Never Settle for Less) was born. N.S.L. was more than just a clothing line, It was his way of life.

Out of all his greatest accomplishments in life, “Bellz” was most proud of his three beautiful children. He cherished them deeply and greatly desired to give them the world. He is lovingly remembered by Caiden Waters, Zaniyah Waters and Harlem Waters, all of Baltimore, MD; mother, Nicol Waters of Baltimore, MD; stepmother, Yvette Gattis of Salisbury, MD; grandmother, Barbara Ward of New York; sisters, Tirri Waters and Taylor Waters of Baltimore, MD, Tiarh Waters of Berlin, MD, Chara Fennell of Upper Marlboro, MD, Armani Ward of Salisbury, MD; stepsisters, Taice Cunningham and Mya Perry of Salisbury, MD; stepbrother, Dante' Cunningham of New York; niece, AlayJah Jones of Baltimore, MD and nephew, Tai'Rai Johnson of Salisbury, MD; godfather Ralph Fletcherel, Manhattan, NY; special friend Ashley Mathews, Columbia, MD and friends will also cherish his memory. A host of aunts, uncles, cousins.

He was preceded in death by his father, Vincent Keith Ward and grandmother, Geneva Waters and a host of great aunts and uncles.

“ Extending deepest sympathy to family and friends in this time of sorrow. Please find comfort in knowing that soon all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. (John 5:28,29) Until that blessed day, may Jehovah, the God of all comfort, grant you peace while many fond memories warm your hearts.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ I am sorry for your loss, please accept my sincere condolences. I hope the family will find some comfort and strength in Jesus promise of the earthly resurrection(Acts 24:15)and the renewed Paradise earth, where death will be no more and no family will mourn the death of a loved one.-Revelation 21:3,4;John 5:28,29;Luke 23:43. may GOD(Psalms 83:18)grant you peace and comfort now, during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. All of us have experienced the pain of death in some way sad to say. And, so, at difficult times like this we are confronted with the stark reality of how precious and fragile life can surely be. So, we send this condolence to you with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you as it has comforted us with what the Bible reveals to us about good news from Almighty God. We are in no way trying to impose our faith on you, but sincerely just want to extend comfort to you during your grief (Proverbs 17:17). As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28,29). Just as death is an enemy to us, it is also an enemy to God (1 Corinthians 15:26). For that reason as well as others, He promises to remove forever all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and DEATH that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10,11,29). Truly, what a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It's a reality though for God cannot lie (Titus 1:2). It is our hope that you not take our word for what has been written; but that you take a moment to read and meditate on all these referenced scriptures and be comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are sincerely with all of you.

“ I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. It hurts to lose someone you love in death. The bible gives us hope for the future. At Revelation 21:4, it tells us that Almighty God will soon wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry, or pain be anymore. Please look forward to that time. Also, Acts 24:15 says that the dead will be resurrected. Please take comfort in the bible promises during your time of grief, and may the God of all comfort grant your entire family peace.
