

Violet Rose Hilton (Hackett)

August 16, 1941 - July 18, 2019

Violet Rose Hilton, the daughter of Vernon and Elizabeth Hackett, was born on Saturday, August 16, 1941, in Kent County, Maryland. She departed this life on Wednesday, July 18, 2019.

Violet attended Garnett High School in Chestertown, Maryland. She was an active member of New Christian Chapel of Love, where she enjoyed serving as a Communion Steward.

Violet was employed at various local companies including Campbell Soup, Lamonte Chemicals and Magnolia Hall. She was also a Teacher's Aide at Kent County public schools. She retired from Stanley, Black & Decker.

Violet loved sports, but especially loved cheering on the Baltimore Ravens. She enjoyed making her famous homemade pound cake and cooking meals at family gatherings for the ones she loved.

The most important thing in Violet's life was spending time with her family, spoiling her grandchildren with Sunday dinners and giving them motherly advice. She set the foundation for her family with her nurturing and caring ways.

On October 5, 1958, Violet married the love of her life, Charles L. Hilton. He preceded her in death. Her daughters, Marilyn Wilson and Bonnie Brickhouse also preceded her in death.

Violet is survived by stepson, Devin Rolen (Dana); son, Charles Hilton, Jr. (Arnika); daughters, Robin Watson (Johnny), Shelly McMath (Tyrone); sons-in-law, Romie Wilson, Andrea Brickhouse; brother, Charles Hackett; sisters, Fay Clark, Alma White (James); brothers-in-law, Sam Tiller, Reginald Hilton and Dolson Anderson (Lynda); sisters-in-law, Valentina Hackett, Helen Butler, Dorothy Hill, Alyce Haskins and Janice Hilton; 16 grandchildren; 19 great-grandchildren; and a host of family members.
