

Virgie Elizabeth Dashiell

June 27, 1942 - February 15, 2024

Virgie Elizabeth Dashiell, a cherished mother, sister, grandmother, and friend, passed away peacefully on February 16, 2024, at Tidal Health Peninsula Hospital in Salisbury, Maryland. Born in Whitehaven, Maryland, on June 27, 1942 to the late Alton and Lucy Jones, she was a beacon of strength and love throughout her eighty-one (81) years.

Growing up in a large family as the second of ten children, Virgie was educated in the Wicomico County Public Schools and graduated from Salisbury High School. Her faith was a cornerstone of her life, devoting herself to Christ at an early age and actively attending the Whitehaven United Methodist Church with her family.

After high school, Virgie married Daniel Leon Dashiell, Sr., with whom she had four children, Daniel, III, Mark (deceased), Natalie and Culon (Que), and later she was blessed to give birth to another son, Derek (Pumpkin). Virgie's home was a sanctuary for her family and a refuge for those in need, reflecting her immense compassion and generosity. She offered not only a place of safety, but also demonstrated unwavering devotion as she raised her children to embody strength and independence.

For over a decade, Virgie made her mark as a shift leader at Mardela Box Factory. Her quiet, humble nature was accompanied by her profound ability to love and welcome others. Virgie's culinary skills were the heart of many family gatherings, and her optimistic spirit shined brightly, even as she faced health challenges in her later years.

Left to honor Virgie and remember her love are: her four children, Daniel L. Dashiell, III. (Suze) and Natalie A. Dashiell, both of Salisbury, Maryland, Culon T. Dashiell (Que) of Pasadena, Maryland and Derek V. Dashiell (Pumpkin) of Salisbury, Maryland; three sisters, Nancy Cole, Regina Gates, and Ellen Perry; one brother, Brian Jones (Debra) and life-long extended family, Daniel L. Dashiell, Sr. (Doretha), Thelma Dutton (Granville), Ardella Johnson (Robert), and Cinderella Abraham. Her legacy will flourish through her five grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, two great-great-grandchildren and one on the way and countless nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends, all of whom were blessed to know her and cherish the time they spent in her company.

Virgie's life was a testament to her strong will, love for her family, and unshakeable faith. She has left a legacy of resilience and grace that will continue to inspire and guide those she touched. As we bid farewell to this remarkable woman, we are comforted by the memories and love she has instilled in us all.
