

Virgil E Lawhorn

September 7, 1960 - January 12, 2014

Virgil Eugene Lawhorn, 53 died Saturday January 11, 2014 at Bayhealth Medical Center. Virgil was born September 7, 1960 at Dover Air Force Base, DE to Consola Harris and Samuel Lawhorn, II. Virgil was raised in Dover and attended Dover High School. Virgil was a career chef at local restaurants in Dover until he became disabled. He loved listening to music, eating good food, watching TV and spending time with family and close friends. He also helped to raise his nieces and nephews who adored him. Virgil accepted Jesus as his savior and was overjoyed when he was baptized; his family was able to witness the blessing. He prayed faithfully every night for long periods until he was called home.

Virgil is survived by his only son Devon Reynolds of Georgetown, DE; his mother and best friend Consola Payne, Dover; his father Samuel (Francoise) Lawhorn, II of Prince Georges, VA; brothers, Samuel (Julie) Lawhorn, Milford, DE; Tony Lawhorn, Wilmington, DE; Glenwood (Sonia) Lawhorn, Mt. Laurel, NJ; Lynwood (Priscilla) Lawhorn, Dover, DE; four sisters, Aleathea (Harold) McDonald, Odenton, MD; Veronica (James) Holmes, Magnolia, DE; Michelle (David) Marcum, Barngat, NJ; Bridget (Scott) Sarver, Colonial Heights, VA; three grandchildren, Zazakiya Reynolds, Ellendale, DE; Devin Reynolds Jr, Georgetown, DE; Daymiah Jones, Seaford, DE; many nieces, nephews, uncles, aunts, cousins and extended family.

Virgil was preceded in death by his step father Edward I. Payne and his younger sister Markina Lawhorn.
