

Walter Milbourne

September 29, 1921 - May 19, 2018

The Obituary

Walter Milbourne, affectionately known as Walt and Tuff, made his heavenly transition on May 19, 2018 at his home in Snow Hill, MD. Walter, son of the late Theodore Milbourne and Priscilla Waters Milbourne was born on September 29, 1921 in Snow Hill, MD.

Walt received his education in Worcester County. He started working at a very young age. His employment included Nock Hatchery & Farms. Later, he became employed by Charles Fulton Farms and remained there until he retired.

Walt was like a magnet. Everyone gravitated to him. He loved everyone and everyone loved him. He loved helping others. You could always find him and his nephew, Doze, on the road or sitting at Down Under. He continued driving until his health declined.

Some of his hobbies were Bingo, farming, playing dominoes, watching Deal or No Deal, The Price is Right, Family Feud, and old westerns.

Walter never married or had any biological children. When asked about a wife, he would say “she cost too much money.” However, through the grace of God, Uncle Walt had a special nephew, Benjamin Ayres Jr, who was like a son and a special niece, Elsie Milbourne, who was like a daughter. They affectionally loved and cared for him until the end with the help of other family members.

He leaves loving memories with his caregivers, Benjamin Ayres Jr. (nephew) and Elsie Milbourne (niece) both of Snow Hill. He is also survived by a devoted friend, Cecil Simms, who checked on him daily, as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and loving friends.

Also preceding him in death were 9 siblings; Goldsboro, Theodore Jr, Wilbert Sr, Charlie, Ella, Julia, Frances, Esther, and Elizabeth.

“ Dear Family,
Grief can be so hard, may the Milbourne family find strength in God’s promise at (Isaiah 25: 8) that soon “he will swallow up death forever”. You have my deepest sympathy.
