

Walter S. Murray Jr.

August 3, 1930 - March 26, 2015

Walter Samuel Murray, Jr. was born on August 3, 1930 in Edesville, Maryland to the late Mary Cann and Walter Samuel Murray, Sr. He was the sixth of ten children. Walter (Jonas) Murray was called home on March 26, 2015 at Christina Hospital. He attended Kent County Public Schools.

At an early age, he dedicated his life to Christ and accepted Him as his personal Savior. He was an international waterman, worked construction and also ran Hubbard's Pier.

Walter (Jonas) met the love of his life, Catherine Murray in 1964. This union was blessed with three children: Cheryl, Terence and Sheldon. Walter (Jonas) also has two additional children, Valerie and Rhonda. Walter (Jonas) loved to help his family and friends.

Walter's (Jonas) pastimes were: hunting, fishing and playing the horses. He also had a passion for raising pigs and chickens.

He leaves to cherish his memory his beloved wife, Catherine Murray; three daughters: Valerie, Cheryl and Rhonda; two sons, Terence (Shelly) and Sheldon (Chanelle); seven grandchildren and six great-grandchildren; a devoted sister, Florence Harris; also a devoted friend to the family, Peter Rice; five brothers and three sisters preceded him in death.
