“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you with what the Bible reveals to us about GOOD NEWS from Almighty God. \r\n\r\nAs recorded in the Bible, God\u2019s only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died, just as he did when he was on earth as a man (John 5:28, 29; 11:43, 44). What a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It\u2019s a reality and a sure hope we can rely on because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2; Isaiah 55:10, 11).\r\n\r\nMy wife and I are confident you will be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.\r\n

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God \ "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.\ "

“ I heard it and as I'm reading your obituary I still can't believe your gone. I think back to the talks we had and if I was down you would always smile and say something kind and lift me up. When God took you home he truly took one of the best. I know you will make a lot of friends in heaven. But I find comfort in knowing that I will see you again one day. I know you will be my guardian angel looking down on me from above. You will be forever missed and loved. But your in the best hands now the father.
