

Wanda Venice Hankerson

June 16, 1955 - July 10, 2018

And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. Revelation 21:3-4

Wanda V. Hankerson (63) was born June 16, 1955 to the late Tim McCoy and Barbara Goslee. She departed this life on Tuesday, July 10, 2018 peacefully at home.

Wanda was educated in the Public Schools of Wicomico County. She was employed with the Wicomico County Board of Education for twenty plus years. She was also a bus contractor for Wicomico County.

Wanda could always be counted on for an honest opinion, a good laugh and good food. She was a loving “Mom-Mom” to her grandchildren and a loving and supportive wife and mother. Even through her physical limitations, she provided loving care to her husband Leroy.

She leaves to cherish her memory; her husband Leroy Hankerson of 43 years; two daughters “Snoopy” Williams of Glen Burnie and Keisha

Hankerson of San Domingo; one son Rudy Hotten of San Domingo; three brothers Tony (Jackie) Goslee, Damaris (Christina) of San Domingo and Daryl (Savannah); four granddaughters, Shay Williams and Taz of Glen Burnie, Anajiah and Abreya of San Domingo; three grandsons Tre of Glen Burnie, Jaylen and Davion of San Domingo; one great-granddaughter Cataléya of Glen Burnie two aunts Mary Winder and Jean Brown of San Domingo; one uncle Reece Brown of Pennsylvania and several nieces, nephews and a host of cousins and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents, step father Morris Goslee, daughter Kim and grandson Devin.

“Sleep on Wanda and take your rest. We all love you, but God saw that you were getting tired. So he just closed your eyes to rest. We all love you and hated to see you go, but God knew best and He never makes a mistake.”

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ Wanda was a beautiful person with a contagious smile and caring disposition. She was very professional as she successfully served as Secretary to the Principal for so many years. She had a great sense of humor and consistently displayed love and kindness to those with whom she interacted. She will truly be missed. I am blessed to have known and worked with her. I pray for comfort for her family.

“ Dear Family,
Grief can be so hard, may your family find strength in God’s promise at (Isaiah 25: 8) that soon “he will swallow up death forever”. You have my deepest sympathy.
