Watson's "June Poone" Journey

Watson Stevenson Dutton III, a resident of Salisbury, Maryland and formerly of Quantico, Maryland, departed this life on Monday, November 7, 2022, at Tidal Health Peninsula Regional. He was born on October 7, 1956 to the late Ella Louise Mann Dutton and Watson S. Dutton II.

He attended the public school system of Wicomico County, and in high school was known for setting the Best 440 record. Immediately following high school, Watson enlisted in the United States Marines, where he served for a couple of years, and was discharged in 1978. He was employed at several companies, but loved being a truck driver.

Watson became an ordained deacon at First Baptist Church of Salisbury, Maryland, and later became an ordained Minister at New Covenant Life Full Gospel Ministries of Salisbury, Maryland. He was very passionate about spreading the Word of God and sharing the gospel whenever and to whomever.

Watson was known by several nicknames, but most affectionately known as "June Poone" or "Jr." by his family and close friends. He will be mostly remembered for his kind heartedness, his love for exercising, and passion for teaching the Bible.

Watson is survived by: his wife of thirty-six (36) years, Cassandra A. Dutton; his three sons, Barry Deshield, Taron Dutton, and Levi W. Smith; one daughter, Whitley S. Dutton; three granddaughters, one grandson and two great-grandsons; his three sisters, Deborah Dutton, Pamela Upshur (Craig), and Ingrid Dutton-Davis (Billy) and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and other relatives.

He was preceded in death by two sisters, Audrey Parker and Michelle Dutton.
