“ I remember standing on the beach at night, wrapped in your arms feeling so safe. I knew that night you'd always have a place in my heart. Through years of different paths in life, we always found each other again. You once asked me if I would 'be yours'. I answered you that I always was. You fought demons that not even love could conquer and I hope and pray your gentle soul is finally at peace. I'll love you always Wayne. Peace and love to your family.

“ We met Wayne this year while working for the Son'Spot. We talked a good bit and knew how tough things were for Wayne. We are so saddened by his loss. His voice had a loving gentleness and sweetness. Although he was going through a very tough time, he managed to smile on occasion and was always thankful for the help he received. We loved the gentle giant and pray that he is resting in loving peace with Jesus. \nGod bless all of you in his family. May you be comforted in the loss of your sweet Wayne. We will miss him.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God “will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.”
