

Wendy DeShiryl Wright (Cornish)

October 21, 1969 - May 17, 2019

Obituary

Wendy Deshiryl (Cornish) Wright, a resident of Princess Anne, Maryland, transitioned from earth to glory on Friday, May 17, 2019 in Salisbury, Maryland. She was the daughter of the late Joyce Anne Mairne and Elmer Eugene Cornish, Sr.

Wendy graduated from Parkside High School in 1987. She was a CNA/GNA and CMT at multiple nursing facilities in Salisbury, Newport News, Richmond and Florida. She also had her own business taking care of three live-in clients out of her home. She continued this career path for twenty-five (25) years.

Wendy was known to family and friends as Poohy, Wen Wen, Winnie Pooh and Mom Wen Wen. She loved fashion and always looked her best at all times. Her wigs, make-up and nails always had to be on point when she was out and about. She enjoyed cooking, being around friends and family, traveling around to different states and exploring new things. She was always the life of the party and music kept her going during that time. Wendy loved to sing and she sang in a band with two other friends. Her favorite artist was Mariah Carey and "Underneath the Stars" was her favorite song to sing with the band.

Cherished memories will be shared by: her husband, Lawrence Wright; two daughters, Desheryl Whitney and Shawna Battle; one grandson, Brandon Conaway, Jr; one brother, Elmer Cornish, Jr.; one sister, Maria Cornish; one nephew, Brooks Cornish; one niece, Ashlee Laughlin; two great nieces, Milan and London Cornish; one great nephew, Taj Jones; two aunts, Shirley Jolley and Molly Russell; one uncle, Robert Jolley; three favorite cousins, Tonya R. Odongkara, Herman L. Harrison, Jr. and Karla L. Parker and a host of other cousins, relatives and friends. She was preceded in death by her parents.

“ I like to express my deepest sympathy for your loss. It was never God's intent that death should rule over mankind. - Romans 5:12; 1Corinthians 15:26, 55; God will do away with death. But for now God has provided hope-as stated at John 5:28, 29. During this most painful time please find comfort from God's word.

“ I am truly sorry about your loss it's hard when we lose a loved one. However, I wanted to let you know that we can be comforted by a future hope. Soon there will be no more pain or sorrow. All the former things have passed away. (Rev 21:3,4)

“ Please accept my sincere condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. During this most difficult time, may remember you are not alone. “Praised be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our trials so that we may be able to comfort others in any sort of trial with the comfort that we receive from God.” (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4)

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.\u201c

“ While words fail to capture the pain of losing a loved one, we look forward to the time when words will fail to capture the joy of having our heavenly Father return your dear one to you. How wonderful that day will be! Our loving Heavenly Father is eager to bring her back to life. Job 14:14, 15; Revelation 21:3, 4; John 5:28, 29; Isaiah 25:8
