“ Dear family: I am so very sorry for the lost of your dear loved one. May you be comforted by the promise of the resurrection of our dear loved ones. John 5:28,29. There is also a promise made at Rev. 21:3,4 where the will be no more death, sickness, pain or sorrow. May you be comforted by these promises.

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. We send this condolence with the sure hope the Bible provides all of us at difficult times like this. As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29; 11:43, 44). As death is an enemy to us, it is also an enemy to Almighty God (1 Corinthians 15:26). For that reason, as well as others, He promises to remove from this earth FOREVER all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and DEATH that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). What a glorious day that will surely be! It's a reality and a sure hope that we can trust in because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2). My wife and I sincerely encourage you to look up and meditate on these noted scriptures in your own Bible (1 Timothy 4:15, 16; 2 Timothy 3:16, 17). You will surely be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope our Grand Creator has in store for us (John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ I am sorry for your loss. May your family and friends be there to console you. Wilbert will truly be missed. May you also be consoled by Almighty God, he knows your loss, your grief and has given a promise that all those in his memory will have a resurrection. (Acts 24:15) May you find peace, hope and comfort in that promise. Psalm 46:1
