

Wilbert E Wilson

March 29, 1962 - July 11, 2016

Wilbert Eugene Wilson (Duck, Butter Butter, Quack Quack, or Shucky Duckys as most of us knew him by) departed from this side of heaven on July 11th, 2016 at 2:56pm, at Christiana Hospital in Newark, Delaware. He was born March 29th, 1962 in Lewes, Delaware as a precious gift to Dorothy Wilson Gibbs and the late Wilbert Gibbs. He was a Delaware baby who had no problem with letting everyone know he was from Bean Town, also know as Boston, MA, where he and his family relocated to a few years later. It was in Boston where he received his high school education from Boston Trade and Curry College.

Duck was a hard worker all his life. Duck kept many jobs, sometimes two at a time, to provide for his family and love ones. Along with his jobs, Duck would also be a helping hand to the community and to everyone that needed his assistance. It could be anything from changing brakes, oil changes, tires, cutting grass, giving rides, painting, yard work, talking trash, and cooking fried chicken for everyone's functions. If you knew Duck, you know that just about every Saturday you could count on him to have the grill lit and his Swamp Juice ready for a good day.

Along with helping everyone, Duck never forgot about his family. He was the best son you could ask for by calling his mother everyday, even if it was for a short conversation. He would do anything for his children, grand-babies, and godchildren making sure that they went with out wanting and that they had what everyone else had. He was a good brother to his siblings. He liked to play the big brother role, so he thought, by giving orders and lets not forget showing them who was the boss. Duck was a perfect best friend to his close friends. Every weekend you could count on seeing him and his friends together in one of their yards enjoying life.

Duck will be missed and a lot of his sayings will be remembered such as: "You have to separate the men from the boys." and "Remember pimping ain't easy."

Wilbert Wilson was preceded in death by his father, Wilbert Gibbs; grandparents, James and Ola Gibbs and Willie Mae Wilson; a son, Javar James and a best friend, Larry Neal.

He is survived by his mother, Dorothy Wilson Gibbs of Massachusetts; seven siblings, Joseph Azel Wilson (Bronwen), Tanya Gibbs (Mark), Carinda Houston (Christopher), Sonja Gibbs, Sharon Gibbs (Sean) of Massachusetts, and Darryl Gibbs of Delaware; five sons, Leronz Gibbs, Wilbert James, Jesse James, Ty'dran James, and Darius Deshields of Delaware; 10 grandchildren, Tazsha, Alliyah, Zymere, Mykai, Ti'mar, Kha'lia, Ki'mar, Jes'son, Sheila and Jermiah; three stepsons, Marty, Tyquan, and Deshon; three god-daughters, Kieshira, Key'myra, and Jakira Reynolds; two special women, Sheila James and Trynisha Deshields; five special friends, Carmen Reynolds, Larry Reynolds, Mike Phillips, Earl Harris and Douglas Gibbs; and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

“ To the family may you all continue to celebrate life through love for one another. Duck was a funny & crazy guy who always had me laughing. His favorite thing to say to me was " Bosslady let me hold something." He will greatly be missed.

Love always,

“ Extending deepest sympathy to family and friends in this time of sorrow. Please find comfort in knowing that soon all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. (John 5:28,29) Until that blessed day, may the GOD of all comfort grant you peace while may fond memories warm your hearts.

“ I am sorry for your loss, please accept my sincere condolences. I hope the family will find some comfort and strength in Jesus promise of the earthly resurrection(Acts 24:15)and the renewed Paradise earth, where death will be no more and no family will mourn the death of a loved one.-Revelation 21:3,4;John 5:28,29;Luke 23:43. May GOD(Psalms 83:18)grant you peace and comfort now, during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.
