“ In celebration of the life of Mother Wilhelmina Smith. Finding out of her transition came on the same day a beautiful black and teal colored butterfly landed here seeming to rest from a long flight from wherever in preparation to travel on to wherever. Its beauty to behold captured the attention for quite a while. Did not see when it landed or departed but it provided an appreciation for its beauty while here. Somewhat like her, one caring and praying mother not just for her family but others as well. She was a wonderful friend to my mother with her extended hand and love shown to others. If there were words to express they may resound as, " If anybody asks you where I'm going, where I'm going soon. I'm going up yonder to be with my Lord". Then the "black butterfly" was gone with no time to say goodbye. but a beauty to be remembered always. May PEACE be with you. Dorphine Abrams-Rojas Peace with you always..
