

William Robert Brink

March 20, 1998 - April 25, 2022

WILLIAM'S LIFE

William Brink, at the age of twenty-four (24), departed this life on April 25, 2022. Born on March 20, 1998, he was the son of Theresa Brink Ward and James W. Brink.

William received his education in the Wicomico County school system and graduated from James M. Bennett High School in Salisbury, Maryland. He was employed by Mastercraft Welder, where he was an apprentice.

William was "free spirited" and always willing to help others at any time. He would give you the shirt off his back. William was very friendly, easy going, outgoing, willing to speak to anyone and a gentle, loving young man with a kind heart.

Precious memories of William's life will be cherished by: his mother, Theresa Brink (Robert) Ward; father, James W. Brink; two brothers, Michael Long, Jr. and Carter Littleton; three sisters, Ashley Long, Lillian Brink and Hailey Brink; grandfather, Elwood Burton O'Neal; grandmother, Carol Moody; William Byrnes, who was like a father figure and several aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

He was preceded in death by his grandmother, Margaret L. O'Neal and two grandfathers, Charles Moody and Robert Brink.

“ Will always remember the fun times at the beach, family get together, and that soccer game in the front yard. Yikes! And our trips up and down the road. And of course your truck and the ride with Carter and Garth. Good memories.
