

William Dale Henry

February 14, 1947 - March 6, 2020

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

DH

“ My Lovel watched you labor breathing Yet you bounced back and appeared strong Although you left us suddenly In our hearts you belong Missing you, your wife. FOREVER LOVING YOU.

Dello Henry - May 26, 2020 at 09:54 PM

BS

“ All our love and condolences. Matt and Breta Still

Breta Still - March 14, 2020 at 07:02 PM

WH

“ Uncle as a little girl you took me under your wing took me to your house in Delaware and taught me how to make my own money and did my school shopping as I babysit furring the summer then you drive me back to Maryland 58 yr later you still was that cool Uncle that didn't mine tell you how he felt and I hat same uncle that allowed me to drive him to Delaware this Dr appointment be cause you couldn't drive any. More so many memories that are priceless and that why you will always \u2764\ufe0f have a please in my heart Uncle D IAM going to miss you a you would say don't cry for me and just let you be free love you Uncle Dale forever \u2764\ufe0f\u2763\u2764

Wanda Henry - March 13, 2020 at 08:01 PM

AC

“ With my deepest condolences, sorry to hear of your loss. May the Lord continue to strengthen you and your family in this time.

Apostle Lisa Cooper - March 13, 2020 at 08:11 AM

TP

“ Our hearts are heavy as we say so long to Cousin Dale. We'll see you in that great getting up morning. Your cousins support you with love and prayers.

---

Thomas, Karen, Gerald & Patrick - March 10, 2020 at 11:48 PM

GP

“ My memories come from both the early 60\u2019s when Dale played excellent Clarinet in the Worcester High School Band up until just last year as He BBQ\u2019d chicken for Lodge sponsored fundraisers, all the while being a Dear Friend and later a Veteran and Comrade.... He\u2019ll be greatly missed.. My Prayers and Condolences go to His Family..Gregory Purnell Class of 67

---

Gregory Purnell - March 10, 2020 at 07:15 PM