“Sorry for the passing of your love one. Read Psalms 34:18 for words of comfort and peace.

“My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. At times like this family and friends are so important to comfort one another. Also, please take comfort from God's Word, the Bible. There Almighty God promises, as his son Jesus stated in John 5:28, 20 that "there is going to be a resurrection" of all those who have died. May you find comfort by means of the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ I would like to offer my sincere condolences for your loss of William Loch. In such difficult time, many families appreciate the comfort offered by the Bible of the time when no one will lose a loved one in death and we will be able to enjoy life again with our loved one. (Isaiah 41: 10). I hope these thoughts comfort you also.
