“ Dave loved his family, he loved God, and he loved his Country. He had his scruples and it made him a very straight forward person. All of that would be to say the least. If I may say personally, he was my very best friend and the best brother one could have. Im glad to have had the blessing of having him in my life. I will never meet another person like him. His memory will always be cherished by the ones that knew him.

“ David I will never forget our times together as kids and teens. Although we didn't see each other much as adults you were still a special cousin. Miss you and love you!
