“ It's hard for us to believe that Bill is really gone. We knew him from the Rehoboth Bay Marina. What a great guy! Always happy and fun loving. He will be missed.

RIP "Wild Bill"

“ We are so sad that we lost a wonderful man who loved his wife dearly. Bill was a great guy who always had a smile and a twinkle in his eye. We loved our friendly neighbor and his bubbly presence. He will be missed!

“ My heart is broken hearing that you are gone dear Bill. So many beautiful memories we all have growing up together. We were quite the gang of friends and I will remember the good times always. God bless and keep you in his Grace and Glory for all of time. May all who knew and loved you take comfort in knowing how blessed they were to have had you in their lives.

“ While I have not seen Bill since high school, re-connecting on Facebook recently reminded me how smart and funny he was! He was taken from this world too soon although I am sure he will keep them laughing in heaven.
