

William Henry Turner

March 25, 1952 - July 21, 2024

Obituary

William Henry Turner, at the age seventy-two (72), departed this earthly life on Sunday, July 21, 2024 at the Virginia Beach Nursing facility.

He was born to the late John Thomas Turner and Lois Upshur Turner on March 25, 1952 in Franktown, Virginia.

More widely known as “Tug Eye”, he received his formal education in the Northampton County public schools. He completed through the 11th grade.

William joined the United States Army in 1974. He honorably served our country for twenty-two years. After he left the service, his work time consisted of farm work and Perdue Farms.

He attended church under the leadership of Reverend McBeth in Norfolk, Virginia. After returning back to the Eastern Shore, he attended Bethel Baptist Church in Franktown, Virginia.

His enjoyment came from listening to music while riding around. A devoted fan, he never missed a Pittsburgh Steelers game. And on every visit, he would stop and shine his Mustang.

William is survived by: his sister, Delois Matthews; one brother, Benjamin Turner of Wilmington, Delaware; one son, Antwon Fosque of New Jersey; three granddaughters and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and his closest family friend, James Upshur, better known as "Toby."

He was preceded in death by his parents and siblings, John Thomas, Jr. and Betty Turner.
