“ I would like to offer my condolences for your loss. I hope you will find comfort in knowing that Jehovah, the God of all comfort, will soon eliminate all grief and provide permanent consolation when “all those in the memorial tombs will hear [Christ’s] voice and come out”! (John 5:28, 29) God promises that “he will do away with death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.” (Isa. 25:8) Then, instead of having to “weep with those who weep,” all earth’s inhabitants will “rejoice with those who rejoice.”—Rom. 12:15.

“ Dear Family:
"If God Brings You "TO" It, He Will Bring you "THROUGH" It. I had not seen William in years, then I saw him at the Brinton Nursing Home in Denton, while visiting my Aunt. He was always walking to and from his room. He would always wave and say "Hi" to us. My Aunt said that he did the same thing each day and time that he walked by. We will miss seeing him at the Nursing Home. We know that he is no longer sick. He is with Jesus. God will wipe all tears from your eyes. Remember that God is a Comforter. He will never put on you more than you can bear. Cherish the fond memories, knowing that "You can do all things through Christ who gives you strength."
Philippians 4:13. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Each of you are in our constant Prayers and Thoughts!

“ Dear Family,

I wish to extend my deepest sympathies during this difficult time. May you find strength in Gods promise at Revelation 21:4 that soon: he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. You are in my prayers
