

Willie Mae Wyndham

September 3, 1929 - January 31, 2018

Willie Mae Wyndham-Gaines daughter of the late Lavinia Adams and Warren Griffin was born in Aiken, South Carolina, on September 2, 1929. She attended school in Aiken and moved to New York City in the 1940s. Mae worked for the New York Telephone Company (NYNEX) for 38 years. Mae loved the craft of sewing and making most of her own clothes. She enjoyed eating crab legs, shopping and working Word Search puzzles.

Her only child, Lorenzo Slater, died in 1954 (1949-1954). She married Harold D. Wyndham and spent most of her adult life in Teaneck, New Jersey.

Mae is preceded in death by her parents, three brothers; Butler Griffin, LeRoy Griffin and George Griffin, two sisters; Ruth Tyson and Emma Cummings and two husbands; Harold Wyndham and Alfred Gaines. After Harold's death in 1997, she moved to Chestertown, Maryland, where she met and married Alfred Gaines. Mae's last few years were spent at the Cater To You Assisted Living Home, under the care of Pam Grennell-Whye. Mae is survived by a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends. Mae passed quietly on January 31, 2018. No more sorrow; no more pain, she has gone on home to be with her family in Heaven.

“ *Mrs Mae (Mother Mae)
Cater To You is missing one of our angles. Although I know you are not suffering any more. Mrs. Mae you will for ever be in our hearts, and you will truly be missed. I know that you are some where around Gods throne, doing what you do best.
I find my self turning on channel 344 because I know Jimmy Swaggert is always on, and that was your favorite channel.
