

Willis J. Bundick

August 2, 1936 - March 3, 2018

Willis Jezerie Bundick passed away peacefully, surrounded by family, on March 3, 2018, at Beebe Medical Center. Willis was born on August 2 1936, the youngest of 13, to Hezekiah and Hattie Mae Moore-Bundick.

Willis attended the prestigious, William C. Jason Comprehensive High School and served proudly in the U.S. Army during the 1950's.

Playing the piano was Willis's passion. God gave him a spiritual gift, he learned to play the piano, by ear, at a very young age. He was able to pick up any note by listening to people sing. Willis was a humble servant of God and a dedicated member of St. George A.M.E. Church, Lewes, Delaware, where he was the pianist. Brother Willis was so musically talented, one of his pastors complimented him by saying, "Man you make the piano sing like the choir." He unselfishly served on several church committees for many years, including the Finance Committee and the Men's Day Committee, he was also an usher and served as vice chair on both the Steward and Trustee Boards.

Willis was preceded in death by his wife, Joyce Dale-Bundick; stepson Anthony Garrison; loving siblings, Dorothy, George, Charles, Elizabeth, Edith, Odelia, Olivia and Catherine.

Willis leaves to cherish his memories, his children,

Willis J. Maull (Jan Taylor), Troy Maull, BeLinda Maull (Keith Perkins); stepsons, Lamont Garrison (Sarah), and Victor Garrison; stepdaughter, Wanda Garrison; adopted daughter Stephanie Collick; sisters, Virginia Miller and Anne Trammell; two nieces, Della Miller and Barbara Ellis, and nephew Robert Bundick, who were raised as sisters and brothers; brother-in-law, Rev. Braven Duffy; sister-in-law Catherine Bundick; and a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and many friends and admirers.

Lovingly Submitted,
The Family

To send flowers to the family or plant a tree in memory of Willis J. Bundick, please visit our Heartfelt Sympathies Store.

Tribute Wall

HF

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

---

H. Fields - March 12, 2018 at 12:00 AM

JO

“ *Dear Family
Wishing you peace to bring comfort, courage to face the days ahead and loving memories to forever hold in your heart. My prayers are with you and the family of Mr. Willis Bundick.*

---

JoyceA - March 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM

IR

“ Sorry for your loss of a loved one. Read Psalms 46:1 for words of comfort and peace.

---

Irene - March 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM

GR

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. We send this condolence with the sure hope the Bible provides all of us at difficult times like this.

As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29; 11:43, 44). As death is an enemy to us, it is also an enemy to Almighty God (1 Corinthians 15:26). For that reason, as well as others, He promises to remove from this earth FOREVER all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and DEATH that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). What a glorious day that will surely be! It's a reality and a sure hope that we can trust in because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2).

My wife and I sincerely encourage you to look up and meditate on these noted scriptures in your own Bible (1 Timothy 4:15, 16; 2 Timothy 3:16, 17). You will surely be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope our Grand Creator has in store for us (John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

---

George & Christine Ragusa - March 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM

TW

“ Sorry For Your Loss!

---

Thomas & Libby Widgeon - March 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM