

Wilmer A. Jenkins

May 30, 1932 - September 30, 2016

Wilmer A. Jenkins passed away on Friday, September 30, 2016 at Christiana Hospital in Newark, Delaware.

He was born on May 5, 1932 in Seaford, Delaware to the late Beatrice V. Jenkins Robinson and James K. Collins.

He was one of ten siblings, seven preceded him in death.

Wilmer received his education in the Seaford School District.

His employment history includes, farm work, construction, Delmarva Paving and as a custodian in the Seaford School district, retiring after twenty years.

During his youth he attended Clarence Street Church of God, along with his siblings. On Sundays his shoes would go M.I.A. His mother soon found a solution for the missing shoes. She replied, "If you can't find your shoes, you'll just have to wear a pair of mine". That solved the missing shoe problem. The shoes suddenly showed up.

He loved being outside whether it would be working in his garden or cutting wood. He also enjoyed watching Western TV shows. Most of all he enjoyed spending time with his nieces and nephews.

While in the hospital, he accepted the Lord as his Personal Savior.

Wilmer leaves to cherish his memories two brothers, James (Elizabeth) Jenkins and Oscar (Elaine) Jenkins of Seaford, Delaware; and a host of nieces and nephews, great nieces, great nephews, cousins and friends.
