

Wilmina Groce

March 17, 1917 - October 13, 2019

Wilmina Groce, "Aunt Mina" to many, departed this life on Sunday, October 13, 2019, after a brief illness, surrounded by family.

Wilmina was born in Greensboro, Maryland on Saturday, March 17, 1917, to William and Sarah Brown.

Ms. Groce married the late Robert Groce, Sr., on December 24, 1953. She was a homemaker who enjoyed taking care of her children and grandchildren. She was the 1st person to introduce mashed potatoes to some of the greatgrandchildren. She enjoyed car rides, sitting in the mall, talking on the telephone, sightseeing, and most importantly, her peppermint candy and tootsie rolls. She also enjoyed our family gatherings and traditions and spending time with loved ones.

Wilmina was a faithful member of Greater New Hope Church and loved her church family. She loved her Sunday suits and dresses and couldn't leave without her face powder. She never complained, but, if she ever missed a Sunday, that's how we measured if she wasn't feeling well.

Wilmina is survived by her children, Robert Groce, Jr., Marlene Groce, Reginald Croce (Marcy), Ronald Groce (Cathy), Milton Groce and Marcella Covington; grand children, Kevin Groce, Tasha Groce, Arlie Jordan (Yecenia),

Mike Groce, Sr., Angie Covington (Wayne), Ronald Groce, Jr., Reginald Groce, Jr., (Robynne), Nia Groce, Daniel Groce, Tim Covington and Nikki Miles; great-grandchildren, Jasmine, India, Vernon, Kayla, Sierra, Mariah, Samantha, Mike Jr., Brianna, Blaire, Nyla, Maliyah, Justin, Devon, Jayden and Davian; step-grandchildren, Patrick, Ben and Ashley; dear friends, Ms. Lois Edwards and Ms. Margaret Seth; and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.
