

Winifred C Aldridge

March 20, 1928 - November 25, 2016

Winifred Cornelius Aldridge, 88, passed away peacefully in his sleep at his daughter Cheryl's home on Friday, November 25, 2016 in Hurlock, Maryland.

He was born on March 20, 1928 to Fred C. and Myra Spry Aldridge in Hurlock and graduated from F. D. St. Clair High School in 1945. On September 14, 1968 he married the late Novella Cephas.

Winifred is survived by his son Larry (Denise) Aldridge, Sr.; two daughters, Casandra (Dwayne) Thompson and Cheryl (Rodney) Conaway; a step-daughter, Teresa Conway; a step-son, Demetrick Cephas, and two grandchildren he helped raise with his deceased wife Novella, Demetrick (Emily) Nichols and Joseph Cephas. He is also survived by six other grandchildren, Faith Robbins, Blaik Thompson, Brandon Conway, Rodney (Sandi) Conaway, Jr., Larry (Karen) Aldridge Jr. and Ian (Grace) Aldridge; seven great-grandchildren, as well as many loving nieces, nephews, in-laws and friends.

He was preceded in death by his wife Novella, his parents; eight siblings, Melvin Aldridge, James Aldridge, Dorena Washington, Mary Joyner, Elizabeth Waldon, Margaret Aldridge, Anne Austin, Violet Aldridge, and a beloved step-daughter, Faye Cephas, whom he called "Peaches". His passing is also mourned by Teresa Barham and Sandi Conaway, whose help allowed him to live in his own home and later in his daughter and son-in law's home when his health began to decline.

Although Winifred worked for Continental Can Company until his retirement in 1993, he loved carpentry and built his own house and that of other relatives and friends. He frequently made games for the church's annual bazaar. In addition, he was a former entrepreneur and was the co-owner of a local store, Hackett's Grocery, along with Ed Conway and William Collins. He even made a killer barbecue sauce and was a master on the grill. Winifred was affectionately called "Ace" by many because he was a jack-of-all-trades.
