“ My deepest and sincere Condolences to the Wright Family! I Cherish and will remember our times serving as " Mothers of the Church" and being seat mates at FBCC. To be chosen as a Church Mother in the Mothers' Ministry is such a special gift and is such a rewarding and humbling experience! "She served"! She is now at rest! God's Blessings!

“ Dear Angela and family, Condolence from the Bowen family. Mrs Wright Your departure is sorely felt. But great joy may be found even in great sadness.
As the earth drinks up the rain, so too our body goes back to dust. Though the body is gone, the soul and the precious memories abide--where peaceful rest is possible.
It's in these good memories we rejoice. The love. The good times. The directions you gave. The tender embraces. The loving kindness and care.
These indelible memories remain, and somehow are mixed with our tears of grief.
Between your going, and our inevitable following, we will cherish those memories, and give God thanks for them.
♥ Our love for you is forever ♥

“ We are going to miss your smile and all your words of wisdom you have given us. We are going to miss our dinners at William and Mary's home. We are going to miss hearing your voice, your laugh. But we realized that God needed you more so you can be a guardian over us instead of with us. Rest now Mother, though we may cry many tears, we also make a joyful noise that your spirit is now with the father. Our deepest condolences to the family of Mother Winifred Wright
