

Winston Lee White

September 16, 1953 - December 21, 2018

Obituary

Wenston Lee White was born on September 16, 2018 in Salisbury, MD. Wenston, affectionately known to all as 'Stinky', departed this life on December 21, 2018. Wenston had so many passions in life. From traveling to spending time with family, but most of all the joy of cooking. Anyone who came in contact with Wenston knew food could trigger a conversation.

Wenston graduated in 1971 from Wicomico Sr. High School, here in Salisbury, MD. Over the years, Wenston held many positions. Retiring at the age of sixty-five (65) as a Delaware Correctional Officer, he retired from what he knew and loved best—FOOD, as he was a cook there for many years!

Wenston held many titles other than jobs. He was an Elk Lodge 1051 member and a pillar to his family and co-workers! He always had a joke to tell and a cooler in the trunk.

Wenston leaves to cherish in memory: his loving and devoted mother, Ida Jones of Salisbury, MD; one daughter, Sheree White of Waco, TX; two step daughters, Latoya Tilghman of Baltimore, MD and Tameka Williams of Salisbury, MD; three grandchildren, De'lue Lyall of Virginia and General and Gabriel Good of Waco, TX; three sisters, Janice Henry of Fort Walton Beach,

FL and Annette and Sylvia White, both of Salisbury, MD; a host of nieces and nephews; a special, close friend, Jackie Fontaine and his adopted families, the Simpson's, Church's, and Dashield's.

Wenston was preceded in death by his brother, Darnell White.

“ Dear Family, it is with deep sympathy that I send this. Winston was a very good friend of mines and I shall truly cherish the memories that I have of working with him. He truly had a infectious smile. Cherish the memories that you have of him but look to the hills and smile because God truly has received another angel. R.I.H. Winston until we meet in the air my dear friend

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ To the Family, I'm so sorry for your loss. Matthew 22:32, Jesus quoted God as saying: "I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob." Then he continued: "He is the God, not of the dead, but of the living." I know that those words mean that those retained in God's memory and will return in the resurrection. Ms Woodson

“ My wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. During this difficult time it is our hope that we can in some small way comfort you as we've been comforted by what the Bible tells us about all those who have died (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). The Bible reveals to us that Jesus Christ has the power and authority to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15), just as he did when he was a man on earth (John 11:43,44). This wonderful promise is a sure hope and reality from Almighty God. The Bible tells us that it is "impossible for God to lie" (Hebrews 6:18; Titus 1:2). Until that glorious day, may you be comforted and encouraged by God's promises, as you cope with life's anxieties that all of us have to face (1 Peter 5:6,7; Psalm 55:22). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
