Willie Derry McSwain was born in Largo, FL to the late Mattie McRae and Tommie McSwain on June 13, 1922 and went home to be with the Lord on November 21, 2012.

Willie or Mac, as he was affectionately known, worked first as a migrant worker, traveling up and down the east coast harvesting crops. He also was a line worker and then a custodian before retiring.

Willie was married to Louella Hargis for 60 years and from that union God blessed them with two daughters. He lived in New Paltz, NY for 61 years until his health declined and he moved to Delaware with his daughter, Deborah.

Willie was a giving man who would gladly help others. Some of his favorite hobbies were gardening and watching western television shows. His favorite pastime was eating and he enjoyed Hershey bars and ice cream. He was especially fond of two of his grandsons, Robert and Michael Crain; one granddaughter, Vonitra Taylor and great-granddaughter, Alicia Kennedy whom he helped raise.

Those left to cherish his memories are his loving daughters, Mary Lou Waters and Deborah (William) Ferrell; 12 grandchildren and a host of great-grands, great-great grands, nephews, nieces, cousins and friends. He had a special niece, Roberta who he cherished dearly and a cousin, Tyrone who assisted with his care while he was ill.

He was preceded in death by his wife; brother, Johnnie Lee and sisters, Hazel and Bernice.
