“ I am truly sorry about your loss it's hard when we lose a loved one. However, I wanted to let you know that we can be comforted by a future hope. Soon there will be no more pain or sorrow. All the former things have passed away. (Rev 21:3,4)

“ I like to express my deepest sympathy for your loss. It was never God's intent that death should rule over mankind. - Romans 5:12; 1Corinthians 15:26, 55; God will do away with death. But for now God has provided hope-as stated at John 5:28, 29. During this most painful time please find comfort from God's word.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on God's promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.

“ I am sorry for y\u2019all loss. Mrs Elaine was the true meaning of a godly women, and friend. I am going to miss our talks every morning when I use to pickup Sheila. Who would of thought that Friday would have been my last time seeing u. I said Ms. Elaine what u cooking for Easter u said I have to make sweet potatoes. Then u just smile and said I see u on Monday. Monday came it was unusual ur wasn\u2019t out there with Sheila . I sat there waiting . I didn\u2019t see ur car so me thinking maybe Sheila had a doctor appointment. I get to work they told me what happen. I just couldn\u2019t believe it . You was a special women .

“ I am so sorry for your loss. My parents and I had a restaurant in the boardwalk plaza, called Bull on the Beach. Ms. Elaine, used to come in for her lunch break from both of the places in Rehoboth she worked and we got to know her very well. After all this time, I still remember her smile and her wonderful attitude about life. I truly loved talking to her. I was blessed to have known her in my lifetime. God bless your family and know she will be missed.

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. Times like this are so difficult to deal with as we mourn those we love. May you find some comfort in the promises Almighty God gives us in His Word, the Bible (Hebrews 4:12). One outstanding promise He gives is that one day his only-begotten son, Jesus Christ has been given the power and authority to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). Jesus showed he could and would do this when on earth he raised a dear friend from death (John 11:43, 44). Death is an enemy even to God (1 Corinthians 15:26). That is why He is going to have death removed forever along with other things that cause mankind pain and suffering (Revelation 21:3, 4). Keep that real hope alive and it will strengthen you in the days ahead! Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ I had the pleasure of being Miss. Wynita\u2019s aide twice a week. She was always so welcoming and nice. I valued our friendship that we had developed during our time together. I am very saddened to hear of her passing. But I have peace knowing she is free of a world full of suffering. Many many blessings and prayers to her family and loved ones
