

Zeborah Ann Harmon (Tatem)

January 18, 1959 - September 29, 2020

Zeborah "Zella" Ann Tatem-Harmon, daughter of the late Wilbert Lee Tatem and Alice Mae White Tatem, was born on January 18, 1959, in Salisbury, Maryland. She graduated from Delmar High, where she was a proud Delmar Wildcat and captain of the cheer squad.

Zeborah gave her life to Christ at a young age and attended Mt. Olive Baptist Church in Bridgeville, Delaware. She led a life that exemplified Christ's love and she had a heart to serve others. Her love for everyone showed true at AAA, where she worked for 20 years. Her co-workers became extended family. In 2011, Zeborah joined Abundant Life Christian Center, where she served as an usher, hospitality member, drama team member, and prayer intercessor until her passing.

Throughout her life, Zeborah was involved in several community programs promoting positive parenting, drug resistance and unity among neighborhoods. She was devoted to her family and her church. She was also a talented writer and actress.

Zeborah was preceded in death by her brother, James "Bobby" Tatem.

In addition to her many accomplishments, her laugh was contagious and her spirit undeniable. Her radiant personality transcended sex, race, age, and religion; to know her was to love her. If you needed a hug, a prayer, an encouraging word, or a good laugh, Ms. Zeb was your girl. She is survived by her five children, Stephanie Tatem, Stacey Brooks (Anthony), Troy Mosely (Cheri), Starr White (Michael) and Shabez Tatem; her siblings, Deborah Price (William), Nathaniel Tatem (Maggie), Kirk Tatem (Jerry), Paul Tatem (Joyce), Terry Turpin and Michael Tatem, along with a host of beloved grandchildren, nieces, nephews, friends, and church family.

Words cannot express how much Zeborah will be missed. She was loved so very much. Her smile was pure therapy and will forever be in our hearts and minds.

“ Zeborah - a beautiful woman inside and out, and easy to make friends with; who had a wonderful spirit, infectious smile and laugh. Her legacy is her faith walk, love and family. Cherish her stories, commitment to community, life lessons, words of wisdom and encouragement. I will cherish the memories we shared. One is when I call myself calling to encourage her, and she ended up encouraging and strengthening me...that's just who she was. Always willingly and freely giving of herself to others. I know you are rejoicing with our Heavenly Father. Teresa Jones

“ Ms.Zebra was always a kind spirit. Even when we would go see Starr in Rudy Park. My heart goes out to her family. Please remember she was the definition of love. Anytime I seen her over the years she would always hug me and we would share how things was going. You will be missed but always remembered

“ Zeborah, Don't quite know how to do it. I'm not going to be able to call you so we can laugh, not going to have you so we can do what we do best. Love our Grandchildren and each other. Zeborah, it isn't sinking in. I am happy that you feel no more pain because you are in a better place. I will miss you so much, Rest in Peace, My Friend Diane Thomas
